

DON'T MISS a BEAT

support lifelong learning as a presenter

PHYSICALTHERAPY.COM

Our presenters are the key to our success as a recognized leader in online professional development for PTs and PTAs. We welcome presenters who share our vision of improving patient care and strengthening our profession by fostering continued learning and growth.

We're committed to high-quality, clinically relevant, affordable continuing education

- Virtual classroom with the latest technology
- Courses available 24/7
- New courses added weekly
- Evidence-based CE
- Taught by university faculty and clinical experts
- $99 per year for unlimited access to our course library

FAQs

Do I have to sign over copyright of my material?

Absolutely not! You maintain ownership of your material and grant us permission to offer the course on our website.

Will my course be advertised?

Yes! Your course will be featured on our website, included in our weekly newsletters, and posted on our social media pages.

How are webinars presented?

We offer various tools to provide an interactive learning experience. Your presentation will be displayed in our virtual classroom. Multimedia (video/audio clips), webcam, and screen sharing can be used.

What equipment will I need?

You will need a computer with a hard-wired, high-speed internet connection. We will provide a headset and training prior to the webinar. A moderator will be present during the event, and we will provide technical support.

For more information, please contact:

Calista Kelly, PT, DPT, Cert. MDT, CEEAA, Managing Editor, PhysicalTherapy.com
210-807-4187 | ckelly@physicaltherapy.com